JOSEPH ROBBIE

Managing General Partner

In a decade of phenomenal progress, the Miami Dolphins have become identified with the greatest football teams in National Football League history. The administrative genius of Joseph Robbie in alliance with the coaching excellence of Don Shula has produced Super Bowl victories in 1972 and 1973 while building the NFL's best record of the 1970s.

Robbie renewed that alliance July 9, 1976 when he signed Shula to a five-year contract through the 1980 season. Now the Dolphins are assured the unity and stability to remain a championship-caliber team.

Another challenge which has aroused Robbie's boundless spirit and determination is that of building a new 70,000-seat stadium in South Florida. A man of vision, Robbie scoffed at proposed $18.5-million improvements to the aging Orange Bowl and proved through The McNulty Company that a new facility with chairback seats and adequate parking could be constructed for $26.5 million exclusive of land costs.

He has silenced skeptics in the past with a tenacity that brought the Dolphins from a 1966 expansion team in the American Football League to an NFL power.

"I think that there's often more satisfaction in the struggle than in the accomplishment," he says.

The struggle began Aug. 16, 1965 when the Minneapolis lawyer was granted an AFL franchise for Miami. Robbie had distinguished himself as a national debate champion at the University of South Dakota, as a Democratic legislator in his native state, and as a municipal planner in Minneapolis. But his involvement in football, until 1965, had been confined to the sports pages of the weekly People's Press in Sisseton, S.D., where he had been a precocious 14-year-old sports editor.

A college classmate, AFL Commissioner Joe Foss, was approached by Robbie on behalf of a client interested in an AFL franchise for Philadelphia.

"He (Foss) told me the stadium there was in litigation," Robbie recalls. "He said there would be a good chance of getting a team for Miami but not for Philadelphia. I told my client, and he wasn't interested in Miami. So I decided to apply for the franchise there. The rest is history."

In the first season, when the AFL and NFL were competing for talent, Robbie made every effort to bring a winner to Miami by signing quarterback Rick Norton and linebacker Frank Emanuel to lucrative contracts. Crowds averaged only 26,062 and 28,978 those first two years.

"If we hadn't been persistent and hadn't been patient, if we hadn't looked down the tunnel and hadn't seen the light, this franchise might have moved," Robbie says. "I didn't intend to move and I didn't appreciate having to deny constantly we weren't here to stay."

But in 1968, when the Baltimore Colts (under Shula) came to the Orange Bowl for an Aug. 31 preseason game, an AFL-record crowd of 68,125 filled the Orange Bowl.

"That's when I knew beyond all doubt that our struggle would succeed," Robbie remembers.

The Dolphins posted a 5-8-1 record in 1968 — best ever by a third-year expansion team — and in 1969, the Dolphins tied Oakland and lost by a field goal to the New York Jets in great efforts against divisional champions. But a fadeout the last month of the season convinced Robbie he needed to change the on-field leadership.

He accomplished it Feb. 18, 1970 when he introduced Shula as the new head coach. Immediately that season the Dolphins were transformed from a 3-10-1 outfit to a 10-4 playoff qualifier.

What followed was a succession of three American Conference championships, the best two-year record in NFL history (26-2) and an historic perfect season in 1972 culminating in a Super Bowl VII victory over Washington.

"I have never been hampered by Joe Robbie in doing the things necessary to put the best players on the field," Shula said.

Robbie's executive skills are recognized by his peers as he serves on the six-member Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council. His influence has helped bring the Super Bowl to Miami four times in 10 years.

Robbie, 60, believes in working for his community, and his spirit of generosity is evidenced by more than $1 million in contributions to various charities during the first decade of the franchise. Among the beneficiaries have been the Boy Scouts, Variety Children's Hospital, Goodwill Industries, Kiwanis, Boys Clubs of South Florida, Greg Stead Fund, Archbishop's Charities, Operation Self-Help and the Gold Coast Summer Camp organized by All-Pro guard Larry Little.

A former chairman of the Community Relations Board, Robbie was praised in a Miami News editorial: "While striving for a sense of social justice, Robbie and his fellow board members offered a meaningful public forum to identify community tensions."

He was presented the prestigious Timmie Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington Jan. 19, 1974 in recognition of "extraordinary achievement" by the Dolphins (54-11-1) over a four-year period. He was named Pro Football Executive of the Year by the Long Island Athletic Club after the 1972 season, and he was Football Man of the Year by Football News and the Minutemen Club of the Twin Cities in 1971.

Most recently he was named Football Father of the Year by the Pop Warner Junior League Football, which recognized his support of charities and educational institutions on a nationwide basis.

He is involved in a broad spectrum of civic affairs. In addition to the Community Relations Board, he has served as a member of the Board of Directors of United Way, Heart Association, Boys Town and Easter Seal Society in

DONALD F. SHULA

Head Coach

With a total dedication to excellence and an innovative mind, Don Shula has made the Miami Dolphins the winningest team of the 1970s in the National Football League.

His incredible two-year record of 32-2 including Super Bowl triumphs in 1972 and 1973, and the perfect 17-0 mark in 1972 probably will never be equalled.

"I demand total involvement from our players," Shula says without compromise. "After God and family, the only thing that's important is what the Dolphins do on game day."

Shula, 46, has fashioned a 138-39-5 record in 13 seasons, and including his 10 triumphs in postseason playoffs, he has averaged 11.4 victories per year. He ranks fifth in NFL victories on the all-time list and No. 1 among active coaches.

The Dolphins (67-16-1) have won at least 10 games in each of Shula's six seasons, and in 1975, that consistency was maintained despite player defections and a crippling series of injuries.

"There comes a time when people have to stand up and be counted," Shula insisted of his players when he replaced five injured defensive starters and also retooled the offense. Eventually he relied upon a third-string quarterback and a rookie middle linebacker to sustain playoff hopes, which were squelched in a sudden-death overtime at Baltimore.

Characteristically, Shula grew more determined to succeed through adversity, and he didn't complain in defeat when controversial calls nullified a Dolphin touchdown and a game-saving interception at Houston.

"I've never used injuries or an official's decision to alibi any game," he said, "and I'm not going to start now. We had some tough calls that went against us, and these were the judgment variety. We've also won some games in the past when the judgment went our way."

While the 10-4 record in 1975 was remarkable under the circumstances, it paled against the success Shula wrought in his first season in Miami.

A joking telegram was delivered to Shula in 1970 after he left the Baltimore Colts for the task of molding the Dolphins into champions.

"Congratulations on your first coaching job," his friend Norm Van Brocklin had written. "Now you're going to know what the rest of us coaches have been going through all these years."

In 1963 Shula had become the youngest head coach

(33) in the history of the NFL and had guided the Colts to a 71-23-4 record for seven seasons. Van Brocklin always kidded Shula about his pushbutton job with Colts quarterback John Unitas in charge. Yet Shula's resourcefulness was magnified in 1965 when injuries sidelined Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, so that halfback Tom Matte wore the playbook on his wristband to quarterback an upset victory and win a co-championship.

But the downtrodden Dolphins represented a stiffer challenge for Shula. He tackled an expansion team which possessed a four-year mark of 15-39-2 including a miserable 3-10-1 record the previous season.

"We had a nucleus of talent," Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese later observed, "but we needed someone to lead us."

Shula brought discipline to the Biscayne College training camp and ordered fullback Larry Csonka and guard Larry Little both to shed 20 pounds. He established an unthinkable schedule of four-a-day workouts and he sought precision in every maneuver. Five rookies including a free agent and a 12th-round draftee became starters on defense.

That revitalized club sprang to a 4-1 start including first-ever victories over Oakland and the New York Jets. Then after enduring a midseason slump (Shula resolutely kept his faith in Griese), the Dolphins built a six-game winning streak for a 10-4 record and a playoff berth.

Shula had laid the foundation of a dynasty, and in 1971, the Dolphins won their first of four consecutive AFC East championships with a 10-3-1 mark. On Christmas Day in Kansas City, pro football's longest game (82 minutes, 40 seconds) was won with Garo Yepremian's 37-yard field goal for Miami. A week later, the Dolphins smothered the Unitas-led Colts, 21-0, on the same Poly-Turf where Baltimore had won Super Bowl V the previous season.

But a disappointing 24-3 loss to Dallas in Super Bowl VI filled Shula and his athletes with greater purpose, and in 1972, the NFL witnessed what was acclaimed in headlines "Greatest Team Ever!"

A quarterback whom Shula had plucked from the waiver list after 11 AFC clubs passed — Earl Morrall — guided the Dolphins to 11 victories after Griese suffered a broken ankle. The Dolphins topped the NFL rushing record (2,960 yards), and with a career record of 105-30-1, Shula became the first NFL coach to win 100 games in his first decade of coaching. George Allen (97), Vince Lombardi (96) and Paul Brown (92) approached the mark.

Incredibly, the unbeaten Dolphins were three-point underdogs to Washington in Super Bowl VII. Shula elected to go with a healthy Griese, and the Dolphins dominated the Redskins, 14-7, for the coach's first NFL championship.

"This is the ultimate," Shula said.

If anything could compare with a perfect season, it was the overpowering manner in which Shula's team repeated as champions. The Dolphins crushed three playoff opponents, 85-33, including a 24-7 rout of Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII.

"I'm just a guy who rolls up his sleeves and goes to work," Shula says. "I don't have peace of mind until I know I've given the game everything I can because the whole idea is to somehow get a winning edge. Sometimes it takes just a little extra something to get that edge. But you have to get it."

Shula was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950, he gained 125 yards as the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-16.

He was the only rookie on the Cleveland Browns in 1951 until college teammate Carl Taseff joined him at midseason, and Shula intercepted four passes that season. He also had a 96-yard touchdown return nullified by a roughing-the-passer penalty.

Shula was involved in a 15-man trade with the Colts in 1953, and he played four seasons in Baltimore (1953-56) and one season in Washington (1957). He had 21 career interceptions.

He entered the coaching ranks with assistant's jobs at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1960), and he joined the NFL's Detroit Lions (1960-62) under George Wilson. The Lions posted records of 7-5, 8-5-1 and 11-3 with Shula as defensive coordinator.

Then in 1963 he succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach at Baltimore, and in the 13 seasons that followed, Shula has won at least 10 games in 10 seasons and has reached the championship game five times (1964, 1968, 1971, 1972, 1973) with two victories.

"Success is never final; defeat is never fatal," are strong Shula beliefs supported by his coaching experiences.

He is considered the major modern influence on pro football. One national writer has said, "AFC coaches . . . are overwhelmingly Miami-conscious . . . in striving to beat Shula, they have acquired enough to win handily from most of their NFC opposition."

He has served on the select four-man NFL Competition Committee for two years, thus helping to introduce rules changes and appraise all aspects of the game.

Shula is a devoted family man. He and the former Dorothy Bartish were married July 19, 1958, and they have five children — two boys and three girls — David 17, Donna 15, Sharon 14, Annie 12 and Mike 11. They live in Miami Lakes.

David is a defensive safety in his senior year at Hollywood Chaminade High.

Shula, whose graduating class at John Carroll University will celebrate its 25th anniversary this fall, received an honorary doctorate in humanities from his alma mater May 27, 1973. He also was presented an honorary degree from Biscayne College in 1974.

In 1975 Shula served as the Florida Crusade Chairman for the National Cancer Society and co-chairman of the Jerry Lewis March Against Dystrophy. He is a member of the National Sports Committee for both the Multiple Sclerosis Society and the Muscular Dystrophy Association, and he is a board member of the Heart Association of Greater Miami.

He also has a four-year term (1975-78) on the national advisory board of "Who's Who in High School Athletics."

ASSISTANT COACHES

DON DOLL

Linebackers, Pass Defense

14th Season, 2nd with Dolphins

Born Aug. 29, 1926

Don Doll immersed himself in the Dolphins' defensive strategies in 1975, and under his tutelage, rookie linebacker Steve Towle developed into a reliable starter. Now in his second season, Doll can blend first-round draftees Larry Gordon and Kim Bokamper into a linebacking corps that may become the Dolphins' strongest group in history.

Doll's efforts with the pass defense helped Miami limit its opponents to nine touchdown passes in 1975 while 21 passes were intercepted.

Doll, 48, was a two-way halfback at the University of Southern California (1944-48) and was a team captain at the Hula Bowl. He had served with the Marines in the South Pacific during World War II, and he was on special assignment, guarding a Japanese reporter aboard the USS Missouri, when he witnessed the signing of the peace treaty Sept. 2, 1945.

As a 1949 rookie with the Detroit Lions, he became only the third man to intercept four passes in a game (now 13 have done it). That year he swiped 12 passes and led the NFL in kickoff returns. He was named to the Pro Bowl four times, and three times he ranked second in the NFL in interceptions during a six-year career (Detroit 1949-52, Washington 1953, Los Angeles 1954), and he played for the Lions' championship team in 1952. His best seasons for pass thefts were 12 in 1949, 11 in 1950 and 10 in 1953.

After eight years in college coaching, including 1957-58 at Southern Cal and 1959-62 at Notre Dame as backfield coach, Doll joined the NFL under George Wilson. His 13 pro coaching seasons include Detroit (1963-64), Los Angeles (1965), Washington (1966-70), Green Bay (1971-73) and Baltimore (1974) where he was the defensive coordinator. He succeeded Vince Costello on the Miami staff.

He and his wife Diana (married 6-17-50) live in Hollywood with their five children — Steven (1-16-52), Wendy (7-13-54), Kevan (12-25-56), Heidi (4-26-60) and Michael (6-6-67).

TOM KEANE

Defensive Backs, Punting

13th Season, 11th with Dolphins

Born Sept. 7, 1926

Tom Keane, an All-Pro safety in 1953 when Don Shula was right cornerback for the Baltimore Colts, coached the Dolphin defensive backfield since the club's inception in 1966. He is one of only seven NFL assistant coaches with more than 10 years' service to their respective club.

Keane, 50, molded a ball-hawking secondary his first season in Miami as the Dolphins intercepted 31 passes (still a team record) and ranked second in the American Football League. In 1973, when the Dolphins were marching to a second Super Bowl title, Keane's secondary allowed only five TD passes all season.

He was a freshman quarterback and tailback for unbeaten Ohio State in 1944, and after a 20-month stint as a seaman in the South Pacific, Keane played at West Virginia. He skipped his senior year to be drafted by Los Angeles (1948-51) and was traded to the short-lived Dallas Texans (1952). When the franchise shifted to Baltimore, Keane set a Colts record of 11 interceptions for 118 yards in 1953. That mark is still on the books. He also averaged 42.8 yards punting and he held the ball for Bert Rechichar's 56-yard field goal.

Keane played with the Chicago Cardinals (1955) and his career ended with a knee injury suffered while tackling Tank Younger in a 1956 preseason game. He coached with the Cardinals (1957) and the Calgary Stampeders (1960) of the Canadian Football League.

In 1961 he was offered the head coaching position with the Wheeling Ironmen of the United Football League. Keane's team won two championships, and it helped him get an NFL job with Pittsburgh in 1965. The following year he came to Miami.

He and his wife Mary (married 7-5-52) live in Miami and have two daughters and two sons — Candi (3-21-54), Tom (5-27-56), Tim (2-13-60) and Mary (2-21-67). Tom Jr. is a starting safety as a sophomore at Waynesburg College.

JOHN SANDUSKY

Offensive Line, Running Game

18th Season, 1st with Dolphins

Born Dec. 28, 1925

John Sandusky, the offensive line coach under Don Shula for seven years (1963-69) with the Baltimore Colts, rejoined Shula this season to direct the best blocking unit in the NFL. He succeeded Monte Clark, now head coach of the San Francisco 49ers.

Actually Shula sought to hire Sandusky in 1970 when Shula arrived in Miami, but the Baltimore coaching staff was frozen. Sandusky remained with the Colts to coach the defensive line (1970-72) under Don McCafferty. He also had coached the defensive line (1959-62) under Shula's predecessor Weeb Ewbank.

When McCafferty was fired after a 1-4 start in 1972, Sandusky served as interim head coach of the Colts and posted a 4-5 record with two losses to the unbeaten Dolphins.

He spent three seasons in his native Philadelphia (1973-75) coaching the Eagles' offensive line. He was hired the same day the Eagles traded for Colt running back Norm Bulaich, now a fullback for the Dolphins.

He was an All-American tackle at Villanova, and he played seven NFL seasons with Cleveland (1950-55) and Green Bay (1956). He was one of Don Shula's teammates at Cleveland in 1951 and 1952.

Sandusky was an assistant coach at Villanova (1957-58) before joining the Colts' staff in 1959.

He and his wife Ruth (married 3-31-51) have four sons and a daughter — John (1-4-52), James (6-21-53), Ruth (10-5-55), Joseph (1-30-59) and Gerry (9-5-61).

MIKE SCARRY

Defensive Line, Run Defense

10th Season, 7th with Dolphins

Born Feb. 1, 1920

Mike Scarry shuffled his defensive line, adjusting to a crush of injuries in 1975, and in the process, he developed what now may be the Dolphins' best foursome at rushing the passer.

Scarry, 56, measures the harassment caused by his linemen more than the number of quarterback sackings, and the Dolphins were more intimidating last season. Also QB sacks jumped from 31 the previous season to 40 (only five less than the team record). Scarry has blended a pair of All-Pro talents, Bill Stanfill and Vern Den Herder, with aggressive young tackles Randy Crowder and Don Reese.

Scarry's run defense has been consistently outstanding. Players with a 100-yard game against the Dolphins since 1970 can be counted on one hand, and the 100-yard games of O.J. Simpson can be counted on one finger. None of the 1975 opponents gained more than 180 yards rushing against the Dolphins, and Miami topped that figure eight times in 14 games.

Scarry was a center and linebacker at Waynesburg College when he played in the first game ever televised (Waynesburg-Fordham in New York, 1939). After two years in the Army, he played for the Cleveland Rams (1944-45) and was captain of the Rams' championship team in 1945. He stayed in Cleveland when the Rams moved to Los Angeles, and Scarry was the captain of the Browns in the old All-America Conference.

He began an 18-year college coaching career at Western Reserve (1948-49) with later stops at Santa Clara (1950-52), Loras (1953), Washington State (1954-55), Cincinnati (1956-62) and Waynesburg (1963-65).

Scarry moved into the pro ranks with the Washington Redskins (1966-68) and spent the 1969 season as a scout for the San Francisco 49ers before Shula hired him to the Dolphins' staff in 1970.

He nd his wife Elizabeth (married 1-27-43) live in Miami and have eight children, five boys and three girls — Sally Beth, Mike (6-22-47), Patricia (7-22-49), Tom (3-6-51), Maggie (7-24-53), John (10-26-54), Jim (10-25-55) and Dennis (7-27-59).

HOWARD SCHNELLENBERGER

Receivers, Passing Game

11th Season, 5th with Dolphins

Born March 16, 1934

Howard Schnellenberger helped to design the game-by-game offensive strategy that carried the Dolphins to a perfect 17-0 record in 1972, and when he returned in 1975, he contributed to form a more versatile attack.

The Dolphins scored more points (357) and gained more total yards (4509) in 1975 than in any season except the perfect year (385 and 5,036), and the presence of the pipe-smoking Schnellenberger was no coincidence.

Schnellenberger, 42, was hired by Coach Don Shula in 1970 after coaching the receivers at Los Angeles (1966-69) under George Allen.

He became head coach of the Baltimore Colts in 1973 and compiled a 4-10 record. He was dismissed after an 0-3 start in 1974 and the Colts finished 2-12. He returned to the Dolphins in 1975 after the departure of Bob Schnelker.

Schnellenberger was an All-American end at Kentucky in 1955 with quarterback Bob Hardy, and he earned all-state basketball honors at Flaget High in Louisville. He played two seasons in the Canadian Football League with an intervening year in the Army.

Then in 1959 he joined the staff of Blanton Collier at Kentucky (along with Don Shula), and in 1961, he began a five-year stint at Alabama under Paul (Bear) Bryant. The Bear had coached Schnellenberger at Kentucky in 1953.

In charge of the Alabama offense, Schnellenberger worked with quarterback Joe Namath (1962-64) while the Crimson Tide compiled records of 10-1, 9-2 and 10-1. Then in 1965 with quarterback Steve Sloan under Schnellenberger's wing, Alabama won the national championship with a 9-1-1 mark including an Orange Bowl victory over Nebraska.

He and his wife Beverlee Ann (married 5-2-56) live in Miami Lakes with their three sons — Stephen (1-27-60), Stuart (1-10-61) and Tim (11-2-68).

CARL TASEFF

Offensive Backs, Special Teams

10th Season, 7th with Dolphins

Born Sept. 28, 1928

Carl Taseff revamped the Dolphins' offensive backfield in 1975, and the running game cranked up for the second-highest total (2,500 yards) in team history. The Dolphins had led the AFC in rushing three times (1970-72) since Taseff joined the Dolphin staff in 1970.

Among the adjustments in 1975 were to combine the talents of Don Nottingham and Norm Bulaich at fullback (they produced 22 touchdowns) and to utilize the pass-receiving skills of punter Larry Seiple on third-down plays.

He scouted Dolphin opponents for three years (1970-72), an endeavor in which he gained experience with the CEPO scouting combine in 1968 and 1969.

Taseff, a native of Cleveland, starred as a running back at John Carroll University and he scored 22 TDs in 1950. He and Don Shula played in the same backfield for Coach Herb Eisele, and they also were roommates with the Cleveland Browns (1951-52) and the Baltimore Colts for four seasons. In his nine-year career at left cornerback with the Colts (1953-61) Taseff set a team record with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown Oct. 14, 1956 against Green Bay (four returns for 148 yards) and an NFL record with a 99-yard TD return of a Walt Michaels field-goal attempt Dec. 12, 1959 against Los Angeles. He also holds Baltimore career records of 112 punt returns for 826 yards, and he never fumbled a punt.

He concluded his pro career in 1962 with Buffalo of the American Football League, and after a year in the insurance field, he became a defensive coach with the AFL Boston Patriots (1964) and the NFL Detroit Lions (1965-66). In those days, Nick Buoniconti was the Patriots' middle linebacker and Garo Yepremian kicked six field goals in one game for the Lions. Yepremian, the Dolphins' all-time scorer, came to Miami as a free agent in 1970 a few months after Taseff joined Shula's staff.

Taseff also works with the Dolphins' kicking game.

He lives in Key Biscayne and has two daughters, Cynthia Sue 20 and Susan 16.

PERSONNEL DEPARTMENT

GEORGE YOUNG

Director of Pro Scouting

2nd Season with Dolphins

George Young, who keeps an eye on NFL players for possible waiver acquisitions and trades, has scouted Dolphin opponents and negotiated contracts with veterans as Director of Pro Scouting. He was appointed in March 1975 as successor to Pat Peppler.

Young, 45, was an educator and coach for 16 years at City College High in Baltimore, producing championship teams. In January 1968, when Coach Don Shula and his Baltimore staff were working the Pro Bowl, Shula asked Young to look at films and evaluate players for college draft.

"I gave him the key to the office," Shula recalled, "and when we got back from the Pro Bowl, he had evaluated all the players and gave us reasons to accept or reject them. He was very organized and, as it turned out, very accurate."

Young was hired as a full-time scout in 1969 and became offensive line coach in 1970 after Shula accepted the Dolphins' head coaching job. In 1971 and 1972 he acted as Director of Player Personnel, signing the Colts' rookies, and in 1973 he was offensive coordinator under Coach Howard Schnellenberger. He joined the Dolphins as game scout for 1974 season and was promoted six months later.

Young was a Little All-America tackle at Bucknell in 1951, and he played for the ill-fated Dallas Texans in 1952.

He and his wife Lovey live in Hollywood Hills, Fla.

BOBBY BEATHARD

Director of Player Personnel

5th Season with Dolphins

Bobby Beathard has reinforced the Dolphins with talented rookies through the college draft, and he is optimistic that the 1976 draftees will be even better. It will be difficult, however, to surpass Beathard's impressive record for the past two seasons.

In 1974, when the Dolphins had three picks in the second round, eight rookies made the 47-man roster and five were starters by the end of 1975. Six others among the '74 rookies signed with the defunct World Football League.

For an encore in 1975, Beathard drafted seven athletes in the first six rounds who made the 43-man roster, and an eighth player landed a job with another NFL club. That's a total of 16 NFL players in two years of Beathard's drafting.

Beathard, 39, quarterbacked Cal Poly (San Luis Obispo) to consecutive 9-1 records in 1957 and 1958. After a couple of NFL tryouts as a defensive back and a brief stay with the San Diego Chargers in 1961, he spent three years as an aide in the American Football League office.

His scouting career began with Kansas City (1966-67) and Atlanta (1968-71) before he succeeded Joe Thomas as Director of Player Personnel for the Dolphins in 1972.

Beathard's younger brother Pete was a star quarterback at the University of Southern California and a first-round draft choice of Kansas City. Beathard is the father of three sons and a daughter, and he lives in Key Biscayne, Fla.

BOB LUNDY

Trainer

10th Season with Dolphins

Bob Lundy bandaged the Dolphins through 1975 plague of injuries that matched 1969 in severity, and his efforts have been crucial to the team's success.

Lundy was recognized for his treating the wounded when the Dolphins presented him with a game ball after clinching a fourth consecutive AFC East championship in 1974. It may be the only time an NFL trainer has been so honored.

In 1969 the Dolphins had seven players forced to undergo knee surgery while quarterback Bob Griese, guard Larry Little and tackle Norm Evans had disabling knee injruies. Six knee operations and two foot operations were among 12 surgeries since the start of 1975 training camp, and at season's end there were seven players on injured reserve.

Lundy, 40, is the original trainer of the Dolphins although he spent 1973 in the real estate business. He graduated from Boston University in 1958 and was the assistant trainer at Indiana University while in graduate school. He became the head trainer at Detroit University (1960-63) while serving as assistant trainer of the NFL Detroit Lions, and in 1964, he became a full-time assistant with the Lions.

Lundy and his wife Alice (married 6-2-62) live in Miami with their three sons — Bobby (3-30-63), Billy (6-30-66) and David (1-30-70).

JUNIOR WADE

Assistant Trainer

2nd Season with Dolphins

Junior Wade joined the Dolphins' staff in 1975 after coaching Davidson College to its best baseball record (21-15) in history including an upset of College World Series runnerup South Carolina.

He had worked in the Dolphins' summer camp in 1973 and 1974 while he was the assistant trainer at Davidson. He was promoted to a coaching job at Davidson in 1975.

Wade, 29, is a native of Bath, S.C., and was a three-year baseball letterman at South Carolina State. After receiving his master's degree, he went to Fayetteville State as a trainer and guidance counselor.

Junior and his wife Constance (married 12-30-70) live in Hialeah with their son Aaron (2-25-72).

DAN DOWE

Equipment Manager

11th Season with Dolphins

Dan Dowe has been repairing helmets and shoulder pads and laundering uniforms since the inception of the Dolphins when he was the assistant equipment manager. He became the equipment manager in 1968.

Now with Prescription Athletic Turf installed at the Orange Bowl, Dowe will be worrying about grass stains in home uniforms for the first time since 1969.

Dowe, 52, is a native of Brighton, Mass. He served 4½ years aboard the destroyer USS Forest in World War II, and the ship was hit by a kamikaze plane. As a civilian he worked in industrial electronics in Boston and then as a police officer in Bal Harbour, a Miami Beach suburb.

Dowe and his wife Virginia (married 6-8-57) live in North Miami with their son Darin (9-14-69).

SIL CORNACHIONE

Scouting

5th Season with Dolphins

Sil Cornachione has tracked the Midwest for football talent since 1972 when he joined the Dolphins after a college coaching career.

Cornachione, 46, was backfield coach for 10 years at John Carroll University in Cleveland. Then he joined the Toledo staff of Coach Frank Lauterbur as offensive coordinator (1967-70) as the Rockets won three consecutive Mid-American Conference championships. He coached in 1971 at the University of Virginia before coming to the Miami organization in April 1972.

He was a linebacker and reserve fullback at John Carroll when Don Shula and Carl Taseff were stars in the Blue Streaks' backfield in 1950.

He and his family live in Worthington, Ohio.

VINCE ALELES

Ticket Director

3rd Season with Dolphins

Vince Aleles has been handling tickets for more than two decades, and he has played a vital role in organizing the Dolphins' booming season-ticket sales of the 1970s.

Aleles, 46, came to the Dolphins in 1972 when the club set a record of 69,303 tickets sold for the season. This represented a more than 50 per cent jump from 44,834 in 1971, and in 1973 the orders jumped to an NFL-record 74,961 that hasn't been topped. A native New Yorker, Aleles left Miami in March 1973 to open a restaurant in Manhattan, and he returned to the Dolphins in July 1975.

Aleles hasn't always been concerned with "paid" admissions. As a youngster he would sneak underneath the Bedford Avenue fence at Ebbets Field to see the Brooklyn Dodgers. He began working at Yankee Stadium in 1950 as a clerk-typist. He worked in the Yankees' mail order department from 1952 to 1961 except for one year (1955) organizing the Kansas City A's ticket department. In 1961 he became ticket manager of the expansion New York Mets, and in 1963 he switched to pro football as ticket manager of the New York Jets.

He eventually was selling Broadway as treasurer for Schubert Theaters from 1966 through 1971, and he handled such hits as "Funny Girl," "Promises, Promises" and "Annie Get Your Gun."

His most memorable sale was the Shea Stadium hysteria surrounding the Beatles' first appearance in the United States in 1963.

He and his wife Margaret (married 12-26-56) have triplet daughters Margaret, Andrea and Diane born March 26, 1959 and now seniors at Rutherford (N.J.) High. Their son Joe (2-16-58) is a college freshman.

Dade County and on National Board of Directors of the American Health Foundation and the U.S.O. He works on the Board of Trustees of the Dade Foundation, Jackson Memorial Hospital, Third Century U.S.A. and Biscayne College, and he has served on the Board of Governors of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce and, since 1959, the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis.

He has engaged in several educational fund-raising drives, and his guidance as national chairman for the Dakota Dome project since 1973 enabled the University of South Dakota to break ground June 12 for the $7.2-million arena.

South Dakota should have guessed this native son would aspire and accomplish great things from the way he went one-on-one with Grantland Rice, the famous sportswriter, in selecting All-America teams in 1931. Years before television brought football to every American home, Robbie used his imagination to create a mythical game between his and Rice's All-America teams, and the game unfolded on the sports page of the People's Press. Robbie's team was protecting a 10-7 lead with time running out, and the youngster wrote:

"Bobby Dodd (opposing quarterback) got loose and into the open on the next play with Bert Metzger (Notre Dame guard) in pursuit. They passed the 30, the 20 and the 10-yard lines. Bert was five yards behind; he lunged forward and smacked Dodd's hips. Down they went. The ball was not over! It was on the one-yard line. The gun sounded the game out as the player thudded against the ground. The People's Press had won, 10-7!"

The game played in the mind of a 14-year-old boy would become a reality in the modern Super Bowl.

He has exhibited leadership qualities as student body president of both colleges he attended — Northern State Teachers College and the University of South Dakota, where he won the national debating title in 1939 and earned his law degree in 1946. He had enlisted in the Navy the day after the bombing of Pearl Harbor, and he received the Bronze Star for his part in five South Pacific invasions.

He practiced law in Mitchell, S.D. (1948-53) when he served as Democratic State Chairman and as a state representative in the legislature. He moved to Minneapolis in 1951 to become Regional Counsel for the Office of Price Stabilization, and later he served as regional director for a four-state area. He was a charter member of the Twin Cities Metropolitan Planning Commission, and he drafted the law which created the Minnesota Municipal Commission for which he was chairman (1959-65).

In 1965 he represented Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey on the committee which planned the inauguration of President Lyndon B. Johnson and Humphrey.

He was married to Elizabeth Ann Lyle Dec. 28, 1942 and they have had 11 children (nine are living, two are deceased). The Robbies live in Miami Shores with their four youngest sons Tim 21, Brian 16, Danny 15 and Kevin 13.

MIAMI DOLPHINS
NFL'S BEST RECORD
SINCE '70 MERGER

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins have compiled the best regular-season record (67-16-1) in the NFL. Coach Don Shula's club has won at least 10 games every year.

The Dolphins also swept three consecutive American Conference championships (1971-73) and back-to-back Super Bowls (1972-73) including an unprecedented 17-0 record in 1972. With a playoff record of 8-3, the Dolphins are 75-19-1 overall in the 1970s for a winning percentage of .795.

Only the Green Bay Packers (1966-67) and Pittsburgh Steelers (1974-75) have won consecutive Super Bowls as the Dolphins.

The Dolphins also possess the best interconference record in the NFL, winning 16 of 18 games with NFC opponents. That included an 11-game winning streak. In 1976 the Dolphins will face two NFC teams — Los Angeles and Minnesota — which have 13-6 records against AFC opponents.

Miami won 31 consecutive games at the Orange Bowl including three playoff games from Oct. 17, 1971 to Dec. 15, 1974; and the Dolphins are 42-4 at home, 31-14-1 on the road and 2-1 on neutral sites (Super Bowls) during the 1970s.

'76 Prospectus

PROSPECTS FOR 1976

Typical of the crisis atmosphere for the 1975 Miami Dolphins was the preparation for a Dec. 7 clash with the Buffalo Bills.

The Dolphins' top two quarterbacks, Bob Griese and Earl Morrall, were injured in consecutive games with Griese having toe surgery Nov. 25 and Morrall requiring knee surgery Dec. 2. Third-string quarterback Don Strock, who had thrown only five passes in NFL action, was moved into the lineup as the Dolphins (8-3) sought to maintain an edge over the always-challenging Bills (7-4).

Further complications arose in practice that week when the linebacking corps was reduced to two able-bodied rookies — and the "53 Defense" required four linebackers. Meanwhile the Bills had four extra days of preparation since a Thanksgiving Day romp over NFC East champion St. Louis.

Dolphin Coach Don Shula installed a five-man defensive front late in the week, but on Sunday afternoon, tackle Don Reese was unable to see because of an eye infection. Fortunately an ophthalmologist helped clear Reese's vision only 10 minutes before kickoff.

"You lose so many people on defense (six players from 1974 were injured and no longer starters) and then your top two quarterbacks . . . how much can a team take?" Griese asked that week. "The one strong force behind it all is Don Shula. He'll see to it that the able-bodied players just work a little more and play harder. We can still do it. I'd be foolish to say it won't be difficult."

That was the implausible scene.

So the untested Strock proceeded to complete 11 straight passes and run for a touchdown while the Dolphin defense mounted a goal-line stand in the last minute of the first half to protect a 21-0 lead. Shula's club rode that advantage to a 31-21 victory.

The Dolphins, however, were denied a sixth consecutive berth in the playoffs as the Baltimore Colts finished the season with a nine-game winning streak including a 10-7 triumph over Miami in sudden-death overtime Dec. 14.

"This team could have chucked it a lot of times during the season, but it didn't," Shula reflected after a season-closing triumph over Denver when Morrall rallied the Dolphins from a 10-point halftime deficit. "After hanging in there against Baltimore in that overtime loss, we can hold our heads high."

Shula, 46, has fashioned a 138-39-5 record in 13 seasons, and including his 10 triumphs in postseason playoffs, he has averaged 11.4 victories per year. He ranks fifth in NFL victories on the all-time list and No. 1 among active coaches.

He has guided the Dolphins to consecutive Super Bowl championships (1972-73) and to the NFL's best regular-season record (67-16-1) of the 1970s. The Dolphins have never failed to win 10 games in a season under Shula.

The immediate task for 1976 is to recapture the AFC East championship which Miami held from 1971 to 1974 and shared with Baltimore in 1975 when both teams had 10-4 records. The road will be tougher because three-time NFC West champion Los Angeles and three-time NFC Central champion Minnesota will come to the Orange Bowl, and two-time Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh will be revisited for the first time since the 1972 AFC Championship game.

The Dolphin analysis, by positions:

QUARTERBACKS — Bob Griese has recovered from the torn tendons in his right big toe after the freak injury sidelined him the final four games of 1975. Griese will be entering his 10th season with the Dolphins. He completed a career-best 61.8 per cent of his passes in 1975 and directed the Dolphins on a seven-game winning streak while the team averaged 32.6 points.

"Last year was a different type of challenge for Griese," Shula said, "and he did a great job utilizing all the weapons in his arsenal, as he always does."

When Griese was injured, 41-year-old Earl Morrall started the 11th game and completed a team record 13 consecutive passes in a 20-7 victory over New England. But the ageless competitor suffered a partial tear of the medial collateral ligament in his left knee and was hobbled for two weeks after surgery.

"Morrall again came off the bench and proved he's still valuable insurance and can win when called upon," Shula said. "When Don Strock got his first opportunity in a pressure situation, he passed all tests. We're looking forward to playing him a lot in preseason to get him the experience to compete with the veterans."

Other QB candidates include Jim Del Gaizo, who rejoined the Dolphins as a free agent last December, and Gary Valbuena, a 10th-round draftee in 1974 from Tennessee who played as a backup man for Southern California of the World Football League.

RUNNING BACKS — Mercury Morris had a 1,000-yard season in 1972 and approached that mark with 875 yards on a record-tying 219 attempts last season. He owns a career average of 5.1 yards per carry and is No. 2 on the all-time Dolphin list with 3,877 yards.

"Merc had a big year coming off an injury-plagued 1974 season," Shula said. "He managed to stay healthy and gave us good performances, highlighted by efforts against the Jets (16-114) and the Bills (20-124)."

Benny Malone was idled the first six games of 1975 with a pulled hamstring, and he underwent postseason surgery for a bone spur in his left foot. Larry Seiple, who led the 1969 Dolphins in receiving as a tight end, was utilized as a receiver in the backfield last season and he caught 10 passes for 84 yards and six first downs.

Shula said, "Malone was hampered by injuries and never really came back to the type of performance he had as a rookie, but he figures heavily in our plans. Seiple gives you a third-and-long receiving threat coming out of the backfield."

Hubert Ginn, a fine all-purpose back and a good special teams player, was summoned from his Savannah, Ga., home in October, and he provided backfield depth.

Fullbacks Don Nottingham and Norm Bulaich shared the position in 1975 and produced 22 touchdowns. Nottingham, a tenacious blocker, scored a record-tying 12 touchdowns while gaining 718 yards. Bulaich, acquired from Philadelphia for a fourth-round draft choice, made the trade look like a steal when he caught 32 passes for 276 yards and rushed for another 309 yards.

"Nottingham and Bulaich gave our fullback position the respectability it had held in previous years," Shula said. "The added dimension of Bulaich as a pass receiver has given Griese one more way to go."

Stan Winfrey was limited, like Malone, with hamstring problems, but in his first carry as a rookie last August, he rambled 39 yards for a touchdown.

"In Winfrey we've got an unproved talent who will have an opportunity to blossom into the type of player we think will add to our offense," Shula said.

Six rookies will enliven the competition at training camp including sixth-round draftee Gary Davis of Cal Poly (San Luis Obispo). He rushed for 2,104 yards and 26 TDs in his junior and senior years, and Dolphin scouts rated Davis with Ohio State's Archie Griffin. Other rookie draftees are Don Testerman of Clemson, Dexter Pride of Minnesota and Ron Holmes of Utah State, who will be converted from linebacker. Free agents Clayton Heath (ex-Hawaii of the WFL) and Frank Smith also are candidates.

RECEIVERS — Flanker Nat Moore took charge with 40 receptions for 705 yards last season and led Dolphin receivers as he had done as a 1974 rookie. Griese and Moore hooked up on the third-longest pass play in Dolphin history — a 79-yard touchdown against Chicago. Freddie Solomon, a super-quick quarterback in college, made the transition to split end as a rookie with 22 catches for 339 yards. That included a pair of 58-yard scoring plays, and he was named to the NFL All-Rookie team.

"Nat Moore developed into one of our most dependable pressure players," Shula said, "and Solomon's future should see him as one of the new 'bomb threats' in the NFL and certainly one of the most exciting players in the game."

Howard Twilley, the last of the original Dolphins, supplied more of his clutch catches in 1975 with two TDs against Buffalo and a leaping TD catch that ignited a come-from-behind victory over Denver. He needs 24 catches and 505 yards to establish Dolphin career records.

Tight ends Andre Tillman (blocking) and Jim Mandich (receiving) shared the position last season, and Jim McFarland has recovered from a back injury that put him on injured reserve after the sixth game.

"Tillman overcame the physical handicap (right knee surgery in 1974) that plagued him in his rookie year, and he demonstrated that he was capable of being the blocker the Dolphins need in run situations," Shula said. "He also has all the qualities to be a fine pass receiver.

"Mandich gives you real professionalism at tight end and he makes up for a lack of size by being a complete player in every respect."

Mandich has shown big-play consistency with 19 TDs among his 93 career receptions.

The 1976 draft produced two exciting prospects — 6-5, 227-pound tight end Loaird McCreary from Tennessee State and wide receiver Duriel Harris from New Mexico State. Harris topped the Dolphin rookie camp with a 4.5-second effort for 40 yards.

"The last two years we've had a rookie receiver (Moore and Solomon) contribute significantly," Shula said, "and hopefully this year, Duriel Harris will be the young receiver everyone will be talking about. McCreary looks like a fluid prospect who can get deep, and he also can be used as an outside receiver."

Morris Owens, a fifth-round pick in 1975 from Arizona State, spent the last 12 games on injured reserve with a severely bruised thigh. Another veteran, Cotton Speyrer, and free agents Chandler Williams (former Miami Springs High) and James Farley (former Miami Jackson High) also will compete.

OFFENSIVE LINE — The cohesive unit which is regarded the best in the NFL now has a vacancy with right tackle Norm Evans, 34, having gone to the Seattle Seahawks in the expansion draft. But guards Bob Kuechenberg and Larry Little, center Jim Langer and left tackle Wayne Moore are returning. The Dolphins rushed for exactly 2,500 yards last season and ranked fourth in the NFL.

Right guard Little has been All-Pro for five consecutive years (1971-75) with the Pro Football Writers Association and Associated Press; Langer has emerged as a consensus All-Pro the past two years, and left guard Kuechenberg broke into the All-Pro lineup by Newspaper Enterprise Association last season.

Six-year offensive line coach Monte Clark was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers, and Clark's successor, John Sandusky, was a Shula aide at Baltimore in the 1960s.

"The offensive line has been one of our real strengths," Shula said, "and it will be undergoing some revision because of the departure of Norm Evans. But Darryl Carlton has demonstrated he's capable of stepping in and holding his own."

Carlton, the No. 1 draft choice in 1975, has worked to improve his pass blocking.

Guard Ed Newman, who won a personal battle in 1975 with a malignant cancer of the thyroid gland, has progressed in three seasons as a backup to the All-Pro triumverate.

"Newman, along with being a special teams captain, should be ready to challenge for a No. 1 job," Shula said.

Another veteran who could challenge is tackle Tom Drougas, a No. 1 draftee by Baltimore in 1972. He also will be responsible for backing up at center and guard.

The Dolphins drafted four offensive linemen with tackle Melvin Mitchell of Tennessee State the top prospect. Joe Ingersoll of Nevada-Las Vegas and Bernie Head of Tulsa will be tested at center and Randy Young (former Carol City High) of Iowa State will bid at tackle. Bob Simpson, a defensive tackle at Colorado, will switch sides of the line. Three free agents — tackles Bob Wolfe (ex-Birmingham of the WFL), Ira Watley and Bill Davey — also will compete.

DEFENSIVE LINE — Right end Bill Stanfill, an All-Pro selection in 1972 and 1973, was restricted by a pinched nerve in his neck last season and he wasn't a starter until the 10th game. Meanwhile, left end Vern Den Herder succeeded injured Nick Buoniconti as defensive captain and led the Dolphins with 11 quarterback sacks.

"Den Herder is probably our steadiest player," Shula said. "Stanfill, although hampered by injuries, still managed to play well, and he has worked harder this offseason than I've ever seen him work."

Tackles Randy Crowder and Don Reese matured in 1975 as second-year men. Crowder ranked third on the Dolphin tackling chart with 95 stops although he missed one game with a sprained knee. Reese won a game ball against Buffalo when he played with impaired vision.

Older pros Manny Fernandez, 30, and Bob Heinz, 29, will try to regain jobs lost through injuries. Heinz missed the entire 1975 season with a sprained knee that required a cast, and Fernandez only played sparingly with ailments in his right ankle, left knee and right shoulder. The knee and shoulder demanded offseason surgery.

Heinz and second-year man John Andrews (ex-Birmingham of the WFL) can be used at both end and tackle.

"All reports indicate that Heinz will be coming back healthy and lighter than he's ever been," Shula said. "Fernandez is coming off surgery and has to play himself back into shape.

"Last year Reese and Crowder asserted themselves, and this year they should continue to improve," the coach added. "Reese developed into our best pass rusher."

A "sleeper" in the draft, seventh-round pick Johnny Owens of Tennessee State, has the size (6-5, 254) and the speed (4.75 seconds in the 40) to make a bid at end. Tackles Darryl Brandford of Northwestern, Don Hubbard (ex-Hawaii of the WFL) and Rick Kukulica (ex-Southern California of the WFL) also will compete.

LINEBACKERS — Despite the fact that six-year veteran Doug Swift has retired for medical school and 1975 rookie Bruce Elia was picked by Tampa Bay in the expansion draft, Shula said, "We are stronger at linebacker, entering training camp, than at any time since I've coached the Dolphins."

The bright outlook is derived partly from first-round draftees Larry Gordon of Arizona State (6-4, 230) and Kim Bokamper of San Jose State (6-6, 240).

"The impressive thing about our rookies is that they will add great size to our football team," Shula said. "It's a question of how long it will take them to learn our system. Bokamper has quick feet and Gordon has backpedaling ability very similar to a defensive back."

Of course, holdover veterans Mike Kolen, Bob Matheson and Nick Buoniconti and 1975 rookie sensation Steve Towle and promising Earnest Rhone add to Shula's optimism. Middle linebacker Buoniconti, 35, missed the entire 1975 season with a shattered right thumb, and his successor Kolen wrecked his left knee in the ninth game. Towle, who had been the fourth linebacker when the Dolphins used a three-man line, was thrust into the middle.

"Towle looms large in our future plans," Shula said. In making the NFL All-Rookie team, Towle set a team record with 164 tackles (90 unassisted).

"A healthy Matheson again will be counted upon heavily in our defensive plans," Shula added. "Rhone is a great example to free agents everywhere that if you're good enough, sooner or later you'll be noticed. He caught our eye in camp, and he produced when called upon in pressure situations."

Shula noted that draftee Bob Gissler of South Dakota State and all-time All-Ivy League linebacker Bob Lally (ex-Memphis of the WFL) "should make it interesting in the competition."

DEFENSIVE BACKS — Left cornerback Curtis Johnson, who intercepted the Jets' Joe Namath three times and recovered a fumble in the same game, had his finest of six seasons with the Dolphins. Strong safety Charlie Babb also had a three-interception night against the Raiders' Ken Stabler, and Babb capably replaced injured All-Pro Dick Anderson.

Anderson was clipped by the Cardinal's Mel Gray in the 1975 Pro Bowl, and he aggravated the injury and required surgery for his left knee last September.

"The return of Anderson (after a second operation) should make the competition fierce at strong safety because of the fine job by Babb last season," Shula said, "and fierce competition for positions is the healthiest thing you can have."

The same situation exists at right cornerback between Tim Foley and Jeris White and at free safety between Jake Scott and Barry Hill.

Scott, an All-Pro who owns the Dolphin career record of 34 interceptions, has requested a trade. In that event, 1975 rookie Hill could win a promotion. He owns the Big Eight record of 21 career interceptions at Iowa State, and he blocked a field-goal attempt on the final play of the season to preserve a 14-13 victory over Denver.

Two draftees, Norris Thomas of Southern Mississippi and Gary Fencik of Yale, and free agents Ted Bachman, Henry Coleman and John Moore will add to the battle for jobs.

KICKING GAME — Garo Yepremian led NFL placekickers in percentage (.812) with 13 field goals in 16 attempts last season, and he will score his 600th Dolphin point this year. A training-camp challenge will come from free agent Jose Ballina.

Punter Larry Seiple topped the AFC kickers with 17 punts that terminated inside an opponent's 20-yard line. That included a 43-yard punt that angled out of bounds at the Baltimore four-yard line during the overtime struggle.

Seiple's competition will come from All-Mid-American Conference punter and receiver Mike Green of Ohio University and Florida free agent Tom Dolfi. Quarterback Don Strock was the backup punter last season.

On punt returns, Freddie Solomon set a Dolphin record by averaging 12.3 yards on 26 returns as a rookie, highlighted by a 50-yard TD against the Jets. Nat Moore and Charlie Babb also escaped on key returns of 29 and 46 yards, respectively, in 1975.

Solomon, Moore and rookie Duriel Harris can cause excitement on kickoff returns. Moore broke an 89-yard touchdown in the 1974 playoff game at Oakland. Harris ranked fifth in the nation at New Mexico State in 1975.

NORM BULAICH

Running Back 31

6-1, 218
7th Year
Born Dec. 25, 1946

Texas Christian
(Trade, 1975)

His versatility as a runner and receiver was evidenced in 1975 when he scored 10 touchdowns — five rushing and five receiving . . . he was born the same Christmas Day 1946 as his predecessor Larry Csonka . . . acquired in July 9, 1975 trade with Philadelphia for a fourth-round draft choice . . . he rushed for 309 yards topped by a 74-yard performance against Philadelphia, and he caught 32 passes (as many as Csonka had caught in four seasons combined) for 276 yards including a 59-yard TD against New York Jets . . . he and roommate Don Nottingham combined for 22 TDs . . . he inspired Dolphin crowds to chant "Boo! Boo! Boo!" after big plays . . . he was first-round draftee by Baltimore Coach Don Shula in 1970 a few weeks before Shula came to Miami . . . as rookie for Super Bowl-winning Colts, he gained 116 yards on 25 carries in AFC playoff against Cincinnati and scored two TDs in AFC Championship game against Oakland . . . set Colts' single-game rushing record of 198 yards on 22 carries Sept. 19, 1971 against New York Jets . . . averaged 4.9 yards per carry in 1971 with 741 yards and caught 25 passes for 229 yards, accounting for 970 total yards . . . he suffered a severe hamstring pull in 13th game in 1971 when tackled by Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift, and he played sparingly in 1972 . . . he was traded to Philadelphia for a pair of high draft choices Jan. 29, 1973 and he responded by rushing for 436 yards and catching 42 passes for 403 yards including an 80-yard TD . . . he was hampered by two concussions in 1974 and then traded by the Eagles . . . "When he's healthy, he's as fine a fullback as you'll see," Shula said after the trade . . . his biggest catch probably was third-down, 15-yard swing pass that set up winning TD at Buffalo . . . also dove for winning TD with 1:14 remaining against Denver . . . he was born in Galveston, Tex., and raised in LaMarque, Tex., just south of Houston where his father owned a grocery store and the family lived upstairs . . . he led LaMarque High to a 27-3 record for three seasons and clocked 9.8 seconds in the 100-yard dash . . . he was football captain at Texas Christian and a 9.6 sprinter on the track squad . . . he played in the North-South, Blue-Gray games . . . he and wife Susie (married 1-23-71) postponed their wedding three days because of Super Bowl V . . . they live in Bedford, Tex., with their daughter Kimberly (8-17-72).

NICK BUONICONTI

Middle Linebacker 85

5-11, 220
14th Year
Born Dec. 15, 1940

Notre Dame
(Trade, 1969)

Fiery captain of No-Name Defense, Buoniconti provided strong leadership to young club in 1970 as it drove to five consecutive playoff berths including three Super Bowls . . . at 35 he was contemplating retirement this summer to devote more energies to law practice in South Miami . . . he missed 1975 season when he shattered right thumb in fourth preseason game and was placed on injured reserve list Sept. 9 . . . quick-hitting middle linebacker from Notre Dame was voted to all-time American Football League squad by Pro Football Hall of Fame after AFL (1960-69) merged into NFL . . . in seven seasons with Boston Patriots, he played in five AFL All-Star games and a sixth in 1969 after being traded to Dolphins . . . was swapped March 24, 1969 for QB Kim Hammond and LB John Bramlett . . . was Patriots' leader with 24 interceptions including three thefts Oct. 20, 1968 against Buffalo . . . 13th-round draftee in 1962 . . . was named Dolphins' Most Valuable Player in 1969, and in 1970, Coach Don Shula made him more disciplined linebacker . . . he played 1971 season with right wrist in cast and had team-record 96 unassisted tackles . . . winning intensity and quickness compensates for lack of size . . . "When Butkus hits you," Buoniconti said, "you fall the way he wants. When I hit you, you fall the way you want. But there's no difference. You still fall" . . . in 1971 AFC Championship game he stopped fourth-down play at 9-yard line to protect 7-0 halftime lead on way to 21-0 triumph over Baltimore . . . "If you want to run on the Miami Dolphins, you have to be able to block Buoniconti. Today we couldn't block him," Colts QB Johnny Unitas said . . . his only touchdown was 13-yard fumble recovery Sept. 30, 1973 against New England . . . that season he set Dolphin record of 162 tackles (91 unassisted) and was voted by teammates their Most Valuable Player . . . twice selected to Pro Bowl . . . NFL Most Valuable Player by Minutemen of Twin Cities in 1972 . . . BOB GRIESE

Quarterback 12

10th Year
Born Feb. 3, 1945

Purdue
(D1, 1967)

A thinking man's quarterback, Griese consistently has outwitted defenders with his play selection and beaten them with his accurate throwing arm . . . he used the quarterback draw for 17 yards in 1973 AFC Championship game against Oakland, and he revived that play for five-yard TD last season against New York Jets . . . he completed three consecutive passes for touchdowns Oct. 17, 1971 against New England in an unprecedented feat . . . he fired four TD passes (all to Paul Warfield) in the first half Dec. 15, 1973 against Detroit . . . in the past two seasons, he has completed more than 60 per cent of his passes . . . he now ranks 10th on all-time passing chart and has 74.9 career pass rating . . . "There are some quarterbacks who throw bombs but can't throw first downs," Coach Don Shula says. "I like Griese — he throws first downs and the bombs." . . . he was rated the best QB in Pro Quarterback Magazine analysis after 1975 season . . . he had marched Dolphins to two-game lead in AFC East and had completed career-high 61.8 per cent of passes when he suffered torn tendons in his right foot during 10th game and was placed on injured reserve . . . had surgery on long flexor tendon on bottom of big toe . . . played tennis in offseason and apparently recovered for his 10th pro season . . . moved past 16,000 career yards with 128 TDs including 14 last season . . . injuries have sidelined him twice previously — right knee bruised (5 games in 1969) and broken right leg, dislocated ankle (8 games and playoff opener in 1972) . . . in two Super Bowl victories, he combined for 14 completions in 18 pass attempts . . . in Super Bowl VII he completed six straight passes for 75 yards and a TD (another TD was nullified by penalty) to build 14-0 halftime lead on way to 14-7 victory . . . his ability to mix plays and utilize running game overshadows mere pass yardage totals . . . in three-game blitz to Super Bowl VIII triumph, he attempted only 31 passes, completed 20 and was sacked only twice . . . longest TD pass was 86 yards to Warfield Nov. 14, 1971 against Pittsburgh when he came off bench (illness put him in hospital previous night) and rallied Dolphins from 18-point deficit to 24-21 victory . . . consensus All-NFL quarterback in 1971 and All-AFC in 1973 by Sporting News . . . voted by teammates Most Valuable Player past two seasons in NEA balloting . . . Pro Bowl player every year since 1970 except twice when injured . . . as Dolphin rookie he set AFL record of 122 pass attempts without an interception and completed 17 of 21 passes for 160 yards and two TDs Oct. 22, 1967 against New York Jets . . . runnerup to Florida's Steve Spurrier in 1966 Heisman Trophy voting . . . born and raised in Evansville, Ind., he starred at Purdue as a two-time All-America . . . led Boilermakers to 14-13 victory over Southern Cal in Rose Bowl . . . set career records of 609 attempts, 348 completions, 4,402 yards, 57.1 per cent passing accuracy and 75 conversion kicks . . . as junior he completed 19 of 22 passes in 25-21 victory over Notre Dame . . . B.S. in industrial management and has invested widely in real estate . . . most requested Dolphin speaker, he gives much of his time to charity including a celebrity tennis tournament in Las Vegas last March to benefit Muscular Dystrophy Association . . . he and wife Judi (married 6-10-67) live in Coral Gables with their three sons Scott (9-17-68), Jeff (10-20-70) and Brian (3-18-75).

BOB HEINZ

Defensive Tackle 72

6-6, 265
7th Year
Born July 25, 1947

Pacific
(D2, 1969)

A starter ar right tackle in three Super Bowls, Heinz quietly has been a steady performer and a bulwark against the run . . . he was placed on injured reserve in 1975 when he aggravated a right knee injury during preseason . . . he wore a cast but didn't require surgery . . . his versatility as tackle or end will strengthen Dolphins for four-man line . . . Coach Don Shula calls him "Policeman" because of the way he protects his territory and reads draw plays and screen passes . . . "Always ready, always steady," Shula says. "People don't seem to notice him, but every so often he comes up with a great play" . . . he spent two seasons as backup lineman, then replaced injured Jim Riley at left end against Cincinnati in 1971 and participated in three quarterback sacks . . . he threw the final block on Dick Anderson's 62-yard interception return in 1971 AFC Championship game against Baltimore . . . he suffered fractured back vertebra in second preseason game of 1972 and missed three regular-season games . . . then reclaimed his job from Jim Dunaway . . . best season was 1973 with 86 tackles (44 unassisted) even when removed for three-man line on passing downs in 53 Defense . . . he was born and raised in Milwaukee but moved to Stockton, Calif., for his junior and senior years of high school . . . set record of 167-9 in discus throw . . . attended San Joaquin Delta Junior College and transferred as sophomore to University of Pacific . . . he helped Pacific to 6-4 record in 1968, its best season in 10 years . . . he and wife Carol (married 1-17-70) live in Menlo Park, Calif., with their two children Julie (9-18-72) and Joseph (6-7-74).

2nd Year
Born Jan. 26, 1953

Iowa State
(D5, 1975)

He sustained the Dolphins' playoff hopes on the final play of 1975 season by blocking 35-yard field-goal attempt of Jim Turner in 14-13 victory over Denver . . . had Baltimore or Cincinnati lost on next day, Hill's play would have boosted Dolphins into playoffs . . . an agile, ball-hawking defender now ready to challenge for starting job . . . he won Tommy Fitzgerald Memorial Award as outstanding rookie of training camp . . . in first controlled scrimmage he intercepted two passes and jarred football from three receivers . . . played every preseason game while free safety Jake Scott recovered from knee surgery . . . was inserted as fifth defensive back in certain passing situations, and he had 26 tackles (12 unassisted) . . . born at Eglin Air Force Base in Florida panhandle and was raised in Fort Walton Beach, Fla., before moving to Delray Beach for high school . . . he earned all-state basketball honors at Carver High and scored 52 points in one game . . . passed up a basketball scholarship to Ivy League school to play for Coach Johnny Majors at Iowa State, recruited as a split end . . . switched to cornerback and set Big Eight career record of 21 interceptions including four thefts against Kansas in 1974 . . . Texas Coach Darrell Royal held record of 17 interceptions for Oklahoma (1946-49) . . . moved to safety as Cyclone junior . . . he and wife Sandra (married 8-18-73) live in Hialeah with daughter Bridgette (4-14-74) . . . Delray Beach honored him with special day in April 1976 . . . he plays for All-Pros, basketball squad composed mostly of Dolphins.

CURTIS JOHNSON

Cornerback 45

6-1, 196
7th Year
Born June 22, 1948

Toledo
(D4, 1970)

In his finest effort as a six-year regular, he intercepted three passes and recovered a fumble Oct. 19, 1975 against New York Jets as Dolphins stymied the offensive machinery of QB Joe Namath, 43-0 . . . he also had interception to set up clinching field goal at New England . . . his quickness and fluid stride are evident in his wide-ranging pursuit . . . durable tackler against sweeps, collected career-high 86 tackles (53 unassisted) last season . . . "A steady, consistent player," defensive backfield coach Tom Keane says, "and that's what you like in a defensive back instead of a guy who's hot one week and lukewarm the next." . . . he has contributed significantly on special teams by blocking four field-goal attempts and two punts in career . . . has what Coach Don Shula calls "intelligent recklessness" for hurling himself in front of kicked ball . . . he returned a blocked FG 47 yards for touchdown Dec. 19, 1971 against Green Bay . . . most spectacular tackle was TD-saving effort in 1971 AFC playoff at Kansas City when he halted Ed Podolak on kickoff return to Dolphin 22-yard line, sending historic game into double-overtime . . . also intercepted pass that Christmas Day . . . in 1971 AFC Championship game he tipped pass by John Unitas and set in motion Dick Anderson's 62-yard interception return for decisive TD . . . he earned a starting job at left cornerback as rookie . . . suffered contusion of left thigh in 1971 preseason, returned by fourth game and was moved to right cornerback where he has stayed . . . he was born and raised in Toledo, Ohio, and starred in football and basketball at Waite High . . . intercepted seven passes as senior when Toledo Rockets were unbeaten including Tangerine Bowl victory . . . had 15 career interceptions for Coach Frank Lauterbur . . . returned three for TDs . . . middle name is Wise . . . he and wife Sandi are newlyweds, married April 27.

MIKE KOLEN

Linebacker 57

6-2, 222
7th Year
Born Jan. 31, 1948

Auburn
(D12, 1970)

His clean, crisp tackling has kept alive his college nickname "Captain Crunch" . . . a longshot as a 12th-round draftee in 1970, he impressed coaches with his hard-hitting, intelligent play and earned starting job at weakside linebacker . . . in 1975 he took charge at middle linebacker when Nick Buoniconti was placed on injured reserve . . . he was second-leading tackler with 81 stops (45 unassisted) until he tore medial collateral ligament in left knee during ninth game . . . his interception against New York Jets helped turn game into 43-0 rout . . . he had missed only one game in five seasons although required five-hour operation on right shoulder and right ankle in February 1973 . . . in first game as Dolphin was snapping for punts and was embarrassed when 41-yard pass from punter Larry Seiple to Curtis Johnson was nullified because Kolen was downfield . . . he responded with nine unassisted tackles in his next game . . . he intercepted John Unitas to preserve shutout in 1971 AFC Championship game against Baltimore, and in 1972 AFC Championship game, his interception snuffed last bid by Pittsburgh . . . born in Opelika, Ala., and starred at Berry High in Birmingham . . . middle linebacker at Auburn when Tigers routed Alabama, 49-28, in 1969 and earned berth in Bluebonnet Bowl . . . All-America second team by Newspaper Enterprise Association . . . he is active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes . . . BOB KUECHENBERG

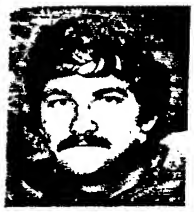
7th Year
Born Oct. 14, 1947

Notre Dame
(FA, 1970)

A recognized All-Pro at left guard, Kuechenberg was an AFC starter in the Pro Bowl after gaining All-NFL honors by Newspaper Enterprise Association in 1975 . . . his strength (430 pounds in bench press) and quickness for sweeps and screen passes make him ideal guard . . . he alleviated manpower shortage in 1974 by starting three games at left tackle . . . that season he gained first Pro Bowl berth . . . in 1973 was left off Pro Bowl squad when 12 Dolphins were selected, and his response to selectors was memorable Super Bowl VIII performance when he neutralized Minnesota tackle Alan Page, the NFC's Most Valuable Player in 1971 . . . yet Kooch had suffered broken left arm in 13th game of season and returned to lineup in two weeks . . . "He's a street fighter," Coach Don Shula says of his indomitable guard. "He doesn't know how to quit." . . . last season he bought 89 tickets at $8 apiece for friends to see Dolphins-Bears game, and he handled tackle Wally Chambers in a matchup of All-Pros . . he was fourth-round draftee of Philadelphia in 1969 when older brother Rudy was a linebacker with Chicago Bears . . . he was cut by Eagles, then signed by Atlanta but cut . . . he then played with semipro Chicago Owls of Continental League for two games before club went bankrupt . . . he signed as free agent with Dolphins in 1970 when he was selling business machines . . when an injury sidelined Maxie Williams, Kooch started last four games of 1970 . . . he was born in Gary, Ind., and raised in Hobart, Ind., when he shared in his father's act as a rodeo clown and bull rider . . . he starred at Notre Dame as offensive tackle and defensive end, earning 1968 award as outstanding defensive lineman for Fighting Irish . . . he is the father of two boys, Bryan and Erik . . . he now lives in Los Angeles in offseason working in real estate . . . earned B.A. in economics.



JIM LANGER

Center 62

6-2, 253
7th Year
Born May 16, 1948

South Dakota St.
(Waive, 1970)

A three-time starter in the Pro Bowl, Langer has solid recognition as the NFL's best center . . . as leader of the offensive line that paved way for 2,500 yards rushing last season, he was voted team's most valuable player by South Florida media . . . his quickness enables him to block rival middle linebackers, and his size and strength are utilized to effectively block for passer . . . actually a lefthander with a fair knuckleball as baseball captain at South Dakota State . . . he maintains a learning attitude, one of professionalism, the no-frills approach," Coach Don Shula says. 1975 SEASON IN REVIEW

OAKLAND 31, MIAMI 21

Miami, Sept. 22 — Harold Hart escaped 102 yards on a kickoff return in the fourth quarter to boost the Raiders and shatter the 31-game Orange Bowl winning streak of the Dolphins. Hart's touchdown restored a 17-point Oakland lead, but it wasn't until tackle Art Thoms batted a pass and intercepted with 5½ minutes remaining that the Dolphins finally were stymied. A sellout crowd and a Monday night TV audience saw the Dolphins lose at home for the first time since Oct. 3, 1971. Dolphin strong safety Charlie Babb intercepted three passes and participated in 10 tackles. "We would have to play a perfect game to beat Oakland," Coach Don Shula said, "and we got nowhere close." The Raiders captured the AFC West title with an 11-3 record.

MIAMI 22, NEW ENGLAND 14

Foxboro, Mass., Sept. 28 — Midway in the third quarter, Don Nottingham swept 40 yards into Patriot territory, and that spark helped the Dolphins overcome a two-touchdown halftime deficit. Garo Yepremian had a string of 110 consecutive extra points halted, but the left-footed kicker supplied field goals of 26, 26 and 33 yards. An interception by free safety Jake Scott and a 46-yard punt return by rookie Freddie Solomon led to the Dolphin TDs, and cornerback Curtis Johnson stole a pass with 1:42 remaining to put Yepremian in a position for the clinching field goal. Nottingham piled up 120 yards, and quarterback Bob Griese scrambled 17 yards for a first down that set up the go-ahead TD. "The Dolphins still have that poise and confidence," Patriot receiver Randy Vataha said. "Other teams have improved, but they'll always be there."

MIAMI 31, GREEN BAY 7

Green Bay, Wis., Oct. 5 — Mercury Morris darted for 125 yards on a team-record 31 carries and Don Nottingham belted for 102 yards and three touchdowns. The Dolphins gained 281 yards on the ground — only 23 yards shy of the team record — and Freddie Solomon spiced the passing attack with a 58-yard TD catch. The 414 total yards would be the Dolphins' third-highest output of the season. Packers receiver Ken Payne, who caught 12 passes for 170 yards in his previous game, was limited to one catch for nine yards. It ruined the Lambeau Field coaching debut of Bart Starr, and the Packers had a 4-10 season. Coach Don Shula summarized, "This was much more our style."

MIAMI 24, PHILADELPHIA 16

Miami, Oct. 12 — Norm Bulaich, acquired in a July 9 trade with the Eagles, slammed his former teammates with 74 yards on 11 carries including a clinching seven-yard touchdown burst with 10:12 to play. Quarterback Bob Griese directed TD drives of 73 and 83 yards in the second half after Garo Yepremian's 40-yard field goal gave the Dolphins a 10-9 halftime edge. Nat Moore shook off injuries and caught six passes for 89 yards and a TD. Meanwhile, the Dolphin defense sacked Roman Gabriel four times and forced him to fumble twice. Gabriel had nipped the Dolphins with a 22-yard TD pass to Charlie Smith in the first quarter. "Hitting won it for us," said Coach Don Shula, who rose to fifth place on the all-time coaches' list with his 131st regular-season victory. "We did a good job jamming the receivers and putting heat on Gabriel." The Eagles finished 4-10 and fired Coach Mike McCormack.

MIAMI 43, NEW YORK JETS 0

New York, Oct. 19 — Left cornerback Curtis Johnson intercepted three passes and recovered a fumble, inspiring the Dolphins' only shutout of the season and eighth in the club's history. Jets quarterback Joe Namath suffered six interceptions — a Dolphin record. But quarterback Bob Griese guided the Dolphins to a balanced output of 437 yards, by tossing three TD passes and running a five-yard draw for another score. Mercury Morris gained 114 yards on 16 carries and didn't play the fourth quarter. On the rainy, chilly day there were 13,280 fewer spectators than tickets sold. The eight turnovers against the Jets were as many as the Dolphins produced in their last eight games combined. "When you get everyone around the ball, things are going to happen for you," Johnson said.

MIAMI 35, BUFFALO 30

Orchard Park, N.Y., Oct. 26 — A thrilling comeback with two touchdowns in two minutes propelled the Dolphins into first place in the AFC East with their 11th consecutive victory over the Bills. Free safety Jake Scott intercepted Bills quarterback Joe Ferguson on first down at the Bills 22 with 3:04 to play, and six plays later, Don Nottingham punched the final yard into the end zone at 1:25 for the winner. A five-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to tight end Jim Mandich pulled the Dolphins within 30-28 with 3:18 to play. Miami outrushed Buffalo, 245-128, and held O.J. Simpson to 88 yards on 19 carries although one was a 26-yard TD burst. But Mercury Morris broke a 35-yard gain for the Dolphins and accumulated 124 yards on 20 carries, moving into second place in the NFL with 536 yards. As a third receiver, Freddie Solomon snagged five passes for 61 yards.

MIAMI 46, CHICAGO 13

Chicago, Nov. 2 — Bob Griese whipped his eighth touchdown pass in three weeks when he stung the Bears for three TDs and 288 yards, third-highest yardage total in his career. Griese fired 20 yards to Norm Bulaich, 79 yards to Nat Moore and 58 yards to Freddie Solomon for scores when the Bears invited the Dolphins to abandon their running attack. Garo Yepremian booted three field goals, extending his perfect string to nine FGs. In the 439-yard splurge, Benny Malone returned to action after a six-week wait, and he thrashed 45 yards on six carries and caught a 43-yard pass. A key factor was the pass protection afforded by left guard Bob Kuechenberg against Bears tackle Wally Chambers.

MIAMI 27, NEW YORK JETS 7

Miami, Nov. 9 — Struggling to a 7-7 halftime tie, the Dolphins erupted in the third quarter with two explosive touchdowns. Norm Bulaich circled out of the backfield and snatched Bob Griese's pass for a 59-yard score, and Freddie Solomon raced 50 yards on a punt return for another TD. Griese's two TD passes pushed his total to 10 in a four-week period while the Dolphins had scored 151 points and 1,595 yards (average 38 points and 399 yards). Also instrumental in the Dolphins' seventh straight victory were two interceptions and three sackings of quarterback Joe Namath, who had hit only 19 of 52 passes with eight passes stolen in his two '75 meetings with Miami. Free safety Jake Scott set a Dolphin career record with his 34th interception and sixth of the season. The Jets concluded 3-11 and fired Coach Charley Winner.

HOUSTON 20, MIAMI 19

Houston, Nov. 16 — A controversial holding penalty against strong safety Charlie Babb nullified Babb's game-saving interception at the goal line, and two plays later, Oilers running back Ronnie Coleman broke two tackles on a seven-yard touchdown sweep with 1:11 to play. Skip Butler kicked the 20th point (Garo Yepremian had two of his three PAT attempts blocked by Bubba Smith). The Dolphins outgained the Oilers, 350-239, on the strength of quarterback Bob Griese's pass artistry. Griese completed 21 of 29 passes for 257 yards even after a cut over his right eye, and tight end Jim Mandich caught six for 69 yards and a spectacular diving TD. Oilers speedster Billy (White Shoes) Johnson stunned the Dolphins with an 83-yard punt return TD — longest ever against Miami. First-year Coach "Bum" Phillips took the Oilers to a 10-4 mark, only third-best in the rugged AFC Central.

BALTIMORE 33, MIAMI 17

Miami, Nov. 23 — While the Goodyear blimp hovered near the rim of the Orange Bowl filming for the movie "Black Sunday," the Dolphins were dealt a greater setback than the one on the scoreboard. Quarterback Bob Griese tore tendons in his right big toe as he attempted to run in the third quarter, and he was lost for the season. The Colts, who rallied from a 14-2 deficit, were clinging to a 19-17 edge in the fourth quarter when Lydell Mitchell dashed 32 yards for a touchdown. Colts starter Bert Jones reinjured his ribs and was relieved by backup QB Marty Domres, who guided TD drives of 61 and 80 yards in the second half. "We had 'em 14-2 and were in position to make it 21-2 at halftime, and we let them out of the box," tight end Jim Mandich said. "That's something we cannot do if we're going to pull down this title somehow." The Dolphins netted only 39 yards passing.

MIAMI 20, NEW ENGLAND 7

Miami, Dec. 1 — Remarkable 41-year-old Earl Morrall completed 14 of 17 passes including the first 13 in succession, and the Dolphins were never threatened in the Monday night TV offering. But Morrall tore a ligament in his left knee and underwent surgery the next day. Don Nottingham plunged one yard on fourth down for his record-tying 12th touchdown and Freddie Solomon zig-zagged 41 yards on a punt return to set up the second Dolphin TD. The Patriots didn't cross the Dolphin 25-yard line until the final minute — after scoring 95 points in the previous three games. New England managed only 150 yards rushing in two games against Miami, and the Patriots finished 3-11.

MIAMI 31, BUFFALO 21

Miami, Dec. 7 — "Every time we want to go somewhere in the AFC East, it seems Miami is standing in the way," Bills Coach Lou Saban said before his team dropped its 12th consecutive game to the Dolphins. Third-string quarterback Don Strock answered his first NFL starting call by sparking the Dolphins to a 21-0 halftime bulge. Strock pegged two touchdown passes to Dolphin original Howard Twilley, and the QB also pranced four yards on a scoring sweep. "I'm as proud of this bunch as any I've coached," Coach Don Shula said. "That first half was a thing of beauty." The Bills fought determinedly to cut it to 24-21 after a 62-yard TD pass to O.J. Simpson, but Don Nottingham chugged 56 yards (with a block from Twilley) to set up the clinching TD by Norm Bulaich. Strock completed 11 straight passes in his debut. "That offensive line has got to be the best," Strock said. "I didn't get knocked down all night." The Bills gained 385 yards, tops by a '75 opponent, but missed the playoffs with an 8-6 mark.

BALTIMORE 10, MIAMI 7

Baltimore, Dec. 14 — Toni Linhart booted a 31-yard field goal through an eerie fogbank and lifted the Colts to victory with 2:16 remaining in sudden-death overtime. The Colts had driven 82 yards to the Dolphin 14 in 17 plays including a 17-yard pass from Bert Jones to tight end Raymond Chester on 3rd-and-15. The nationally-televised battle for the AFC East championship was a scoreless duel at halftime, and the Dolphins gained a 7-0 edge on a three-yard sweep by Mercury Morris. But the Colts marched 86 yards to the tying TD with 5:30 to play when Lydell Mitchell swept six yards. Linhart had missed a 29-yard attempt in the second quarter, and Garo Yepremian missed to the left on 45-yard and 35-yard tries for the Dolphins. Quarterback Jones completed 23 of 39 passes for 232 yards and had none intercepted. In the two Dolphins-Colts meetings in '75, the Dolphins had seven turnovers and the Colts had none.

MIAMI 14, DENVER 13

Miami, Dec. 20 — Faint hopes of a playoff berth were sustained by another Earl Morrall rescue and a blocked field goal by rookie Barry Hill on the final play. Morrall, the 20-year veteran quarterback, rallied the Dolphins from a 10-0 halftime deficit by directing touchdown drives of 76 and 80 yards. He whipped a 10-yard TD pass to leaping Howard Twilley, and a 20-yard pass to Nat Moore on third down led to the winning score — a one-yard plunge by Norm Bulaich with 1:14 remaining. Morrall accomplished this with a brace on his left knee and only 11 days after surgery for ligament damage. But the Broncos hustled to the Dolphin 18 in eight plays, and with :03 on the clock, Jim Turner attempted a 35-yard field goal. Hill lunged from Turner's right and smothered the kick, preserving the Dolphins' 10th victory and giving the Broncos a losing 6-8 record. Bronco running back Floyd Little retired as the seventh-leading rusher (6,323 yards) in NFL history.

MEDIA INFORMATION

ORANGE BOWL STADIUM

The Orange Bowl, home of the Dolphins, was dedicated Dec. 10, 1937 when President Franklin D. Roosevelt pushed a button in Washington and turned on the lights for a game between the University of Miami and Georgia. At that time, the structure seated 22,000.

It was expanded to 60,000 seats in 1946 by double-decking the north and south stands, and in 1968, the capacity rose to 75,000 when the west end zone was decked. Demand for Dolphin tickets in 1971 prompted the installation of temporary bleachers in the east end zone, and capacity jumped to 80,045.

The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, and the slippery, matted surface was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March 1976 so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

With the dismantling of the east end-zone bleachers in 1976, the stadium capacity is now 75,450. The turnstile record for a Dolphin game is 78,914 set Nov. 19, 1972 against the New York Jets.

AL MINTER

DOLPHINS RADIO NETWORK

Miami radio station WIOD (610 AM) has been the originating station for a state network which broadcasts all Dolphin games since the team began playing in 1966. The "Voice of the Dolphins" for the sixth season is Rick Weaver, who handles the play-by-play account. Henry Barrow and Al Minter provide color commentary and dressing room interviews.
